DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3, 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by EP 1091573.

3. EP 1091573 discloses a method of digitally reproducing a variable density analog film soundtrack comprising:

EP 1091573 discloses a device and method for reproducing analog audio information recorded on a film comprising:

Optically scanning a variable area soundtrack (3) with a CCD line sensor (13) and outputting a digital signal RS-422;

Storing the digital signal in memory (19);

Applying statistical processing techniques to the stored digital signal to restore at least one characteristic.

Such processing includes brightness averaging and adaptive filtering

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 4-5, 7-12, 18-19, 21-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over EP 1091573.

As regards Claims 7 and 21 it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to apply any known method of signal manipulation, such as conversion to 12 bit, in order to obtain a desired type of signal to perform correction on.

As regards Claims 4-5, 18-19 it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to perform the several correction under the supervision of an operator in order to maintain control in case of error in processing.

As regards Claims 8-12, 22-26, as noted in Column 6 Lines 7-16 the scanning system is synchronized with a transport of the film. It would have been obvious to apply known methods of alignment in order to obtain the best imaging. Such a modification amounts to applying known techniques to known devices to achieve a predictable result of alignment

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 13 and 14 are indefinite because there is no definite antecedent for “the step of creating a look up table” or “the step of performing adaptive filtering”. Such steps are recited in the alternative in Claim 3 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 6 and 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Claims 6 and 20 present a nonobvious series of steps as recited in Claims 3 and 17.
